

Outlook

Request for Information on Plagiarism Detection Software

De Raquel Viana Ferreira <raquelviana@unb.br>

Data Qui, 24/07/2025 10:59

Para support@originality.ai <support@originality.ai>; Thayse Natalia Cantanhede Santos <thayse.santos@unb.br>

Dear Sirs,

My name is Raquel Viana, and I am a librarian at the University of Brasília (UnB). I am contacting you to request detailed information about the features and commercial terms of the plagiarism detection software offered by your company, with a view to meeting the needs of our institution.

Technical Requirements of Interest:

We are interested in a solution that meets the following criteria:

1. Plagiarism Detection

- Extensive investigation in online databases (cache and live sources).
- Verification in multiple formats (Word, PDF, HTML, RTF, plain text, etc.).
- Comparison with academic publications (books, articles, journals) and databases such as Elsevier, Ebsco, Sage, among others.
- Integration with repositories from UnB (Digital Library, Journal Portal) and other universities.
- Comparison of similarity between multiple documents.

2. Textual Analysis

- Grammar and text structure checking.
- Support for multiple languages (especially Portuguese and English).
- Similarity analysis between texts.

3. Reports and Plagiarism Indication

- Highlighting of textual equivalence.
- Issuance of detailed reports indicating similarity.

Technological Requirements

- Compatibility with various formats (including WordPress).
- Interoperability with systems such as DSpace, OJS, Omeka, and Tainacan.
- Institutional license for 4,500 users, with no daily analysis limit.
- Remote access and issuance of usage statistics by academic unit.

Additional Requests:

1. License information:

- Types of licenses available (institutional, network, etc.).

- Costs for acquisition and annual maintenance.
- Update and technical support policy.

2. Demonstration or Trial:

- Availability of trial version or demonstration of features.

3. Use Cases:

- Experiences of other academic institutions with the software.

We thank you in advance for your assistance and remain available to answer any questions. Please send the information to raquelviana@unb.br or indicate a direct contact channel for negotiation.

Sincerely,

Raquel Viana

Librarian - University of Brasília (UnB)

raquelviana@unb.br

Raquel Viana
Bibliotecária