Hi Laura,

Thank you for reaching out to us here at Flickr - my name is Becki and I'm happy to help 🙌

I'm sorry for the trouble here, Laura. At this time, Flickr does not accept direct deposits as a form of payment.

I can definitely understand the desire to have us accept direct deposits, and I've forwarded that suggestion on to our team for their consideration. While I do not have a timeframe for if/when this would be put into effect, they are now aware that this is something that members of Flickr would like to see as an option.

In the meantime, you can see our acceptable payment methods listed here: <https://www.flickrhelp.com/hc/en-us/articles/4404058106772-Acceptable-payment-methods>

If you should have any further questions or concerns, or even suggestions, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Best wishes,

Becki
