

A photograph of a prison courtyard. In the foreground, a wide, grey concrete gate is partially open, revealing a gravel-covered area. The gate is flanked by high, grey concrete walls. On the right wall, there is a small concrete structure with a circular opening. In the background, three cars are parked: a white car on the left, a silver car in the middle, and a white car on the right. A blue building with a white door is visible behind the cars. A large tree is on the left side of the background. The sky is clear and blue. The text "3 metros" is overlaid in red on the gate.

3 metros

