10th IOSCO/PIFS-Harvard Law School

Global Certificate Program for Regulators of Securities Markets - Phase II

7 - 11 December 2026
HLS, Cambridge, MA, USA

Scholarship grants for Phase II of the IOSCO/PIFS-Harvard Law School Global Certificate Program for Regulators of Securities Markets, hosted by PIFS-HLS from 7-11 December 2026

We are pleased to announce that the Program on International Financial Systems at Harvard Law School (PIFS-HLS) has once again successfully secured funding for the Global Certificate Program Scholarship Fund ("Fund"). PIFS-HLS, which administers Phase II of the IOSCO/PIFS-HLS Global Certificate Program for regulators of securities markets, both holds and administers this Fund which is made up of contributions from the academic, public and not-for-profit sector. Grants from this Fund shall be applied towards the tuition fee of Phase II. This year, Phase II will be organized in-person at Harvard Law School in Cambridge (MA, USA) on 7-11 December 2026, between approx. 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM EST on each day. The tuition fee for this year's Phase II has been set at USD 7,750 per person.

We invite authorities from growth and emerging markets to nominate up to two eligible candidates for a scholarship grant (i.e. no self-nominations). Please find attached the scholarship policy that governs the awarding of discretionary grants to eligible candidates from IOSCO members from growth and emerging markets, as well as the nomination form. The nomination form must be accompanied with a maximum two-page (double space) essay written by the nominee in an individual capacity only (no outside assistance) on the following topic:

"Pick one burning topic of your choice in securities regulation and explain how securities regulators should tackle that issue."

Nominations must be submitted by no later than 15 July 2026. Incomplete nominations (e.g. without the nominee's essay) or nominations received after the submission deadline of 15 July 2026 will not be considered. The authorities of successful candidates will be notified by 15 August 2026. Note that successful candidates will be offered a full or partial tuition fee waiver. For any questions, please contact scholarships@iosco.org.

Re: Outcome of nominations for a scholarship grant for Phase II of the IOSCO/PIFS-HLS Global Certificate Program, Cambridge, MA, US, 7-11
December 2026

Dear Eduardo Manhães Ribeiro Gomes,

We are writing to you regarding the nomination of Michelle da Rocha Faria Corrêa and Osvaldo Ramos Mateos by your authority for a scholarship grant for Phase II of the IOSCO/PIFS-HLS Global Certificate Program, taking place in Cambridge, MA, US, from 7-11 December 2026. [Note that virtual participation is not possible.]

The Program on International Financial Systems and Harvard Law School (PIFS-HLS) and the IOSCO General Secretariat carefully vetted all nominations, which outnumbered the funding available in the Global Certificate Program Scholarship Fund by a significant amount. This Fund is held and administered by PIFS-HLS and is made up of contributions from the academic, public and not-for-profit sectors.

On behalf of PIFS-HLS, we are pleased to offer Michelle da Rocha Faria Corrêa and Osvaldo Ramos Mateos a scholarship grant of USD 3,875 which results in a 50% tuition fee waiver for Phase II. [Note: Accommodation and travel costs are not included in this fee waiver, and each candidate must bear their own costs.] This offer is only valid for the upcoming Phase II of 7-11 December 2026, cannot be retained for future editions of Phase II and is not transferrable.

Please let us know by 22 September 2026 whether you will accept this offer and confirm the participation of Michelle da Rocha Faria Corrêa and Osvaldo Ramos Mateos in Phase II in December.

For any questions, please contact scholarships@iosco.org.

Sincerely,

Rodrigo Buenaventura
