COMPLIANCE WITH BRAZILIAN CUSTOMS LEGISLATION

Agilent hereby declares that all documents issued for customs clearance purposes — including, but not limited to, the commercial invoice and the packing list — are prepared in strict accordance with Brazilian customs regulations, particularly the provisions set forth in Decree No. 6,759 of February 5, 2009, and Normative Instruction SRF No. 680 of October 2, 2006. Pursuant to the applicable legislation, such documents shall contain exclusively the information required by law, including but not limited to:

- Full identification of all parties involved;
- Detailed description of the goods;
- Quantity, net weight, and gross weight;
- Unit price and total value;
- Payment and shipping terms;
- Package specifications (in the case of the packing list).

Requests for the inclusion of any additional information not expressly required under the applicable legislation shall not be accommodated, in order to ensure regulatory compliance and to prevent inconsistencies that may hinder or delay the customs clearance process.
