NOTES:

1. The prices in dollars quoted in this Proforma Invoice are the same as those charged by Life Technologies Corporation in the international market. We hereby declare that the prices contained in the Proforma Invoice are authentic and that there are no published price lists.
2. The customs classifications informed in our Proforma Invoices and Invoices are merely suggestions. The responsibility for indicating the tariff classification at the time of nationalization of the products lies with the importer, as well as the payment of taxes and compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements arising from this indication. Life Technologies Corporation is unable to assume any responsibility arising from the use of these suggested classifications, such as fines or differences in tax rates resulting from disputes on the part of customs authorities regarding the interpretation of tariff items used in final clearance thru customs.
3. The equipment, accessories, and spare parts will be transported in appropriate packaging (cardboard boxes), using wooden protection, when necessary, lined internally with injected polyurethane. Perishable reagents will be packaged in "endotherm" packaging (boxes lined with thermal insulation material) with visible labels indicating the ideal temperature at which the cargo should be maintained.
4. Perishable reagents decompose at room temperature. The exporter is responsible for packaging them in appropriate packaging with dry ice and/or ice gel, according to the characteristics of the product, which guarantees their integrity for 120 (one hundred and twenty) hours. It is the responsibility of the customer, or their representative (freight forwarder, broker, etc.), to maintain the integrity of the products, replacing the ice if necessary. All information can be found in the shipping documents: Packing List, SED (Shipper's Export Declaration), or Pieces and Weight.
5. Please be advised that the aforementioned exporter has more than one Distribution Center. Therefore, for processes whose incoterm is EXW (Ex-Works), the products may be made available at more than one collection address.
6. Please be advised that in the event of the cancellation of the PO, order item, or batch exchange after the issuance of the shipping documents, a fee of 25% of the order value will be charged, referring to the expenses generated for logistical reprocessing.
